Subject: Ramtron Product Marking Change to Align With Cypress Marking Format

To: PHILIP MAILLET
FUTURE
pcn.system2@future.ca

Change Type: Minor

Description of Change:

Cypress Semiconductor has completed the integration of Ramtron products into Cypress systems. There have been no changes to manufacturing processes or sites. However, the package marking has been modified to align with the standard Cypress marking requirements for three packages. Please note the following changes in the marking.

Product Information: Please see the attached PDF file.

Affected Parts: Please see the attached affected part list.

Qualification Status:

Not Applicable

Approximate Implementation Date:

This change will take effect immediately upon release of this PIN. During the transition products with old marking and new marking may be shipped under the same order.

Anticipated Impact:

None. There have been no changes to manufacturing processes or sites for Ramtron products. Cypress recommends that customers take this opportunity to review these changes against current application notes, system design considerations and customer environment conditions to assess impact (if any) to their application.

Method of Identification: Please see the attached PDF file
