

Title: Notification of SIMCom Product- SIM900 Series Shanghai, May 31st,2016

Dear SIMCom Customers ,

We would like to thank you sincerely for your great support in using our GSM/GPRS SIM900 series products. Due to lack of supply of important components, We are sorry to inform you that the following product will be phased out.

The phase-out product is as follows:

- SIM900/SIM900L/SIM900D/SIM900S/SIM900E/SIM900B

The phase out schedule is as follows:

- Last order acceptance time: Dec. 31st, 2016

- Last delivery time: March. 31st, 2017

We suggest you make an effective prediction of the project that has been completed or are being used in bulk. For other projects, we recommend you to choose SIM800C and SIM800F, which have smaller size, lower price and the same performance.

We consistently adhering to the principle of "smart machine, smart decision", to provide you a cost-effective service. If you have any questions or need help, please feel free to contact us or your local agent.
